PROCEDURE SUMMARY

Non-cash gifts are evaluated, received, and recorded by the University in furtherance of the University's mission.

The Office of Institutional Advancement (IA) and the Medical and Health Sciences Foundation (MHSF) are primarily responsible for non-cash gift donation coordination and acceptance. Any questions should be forwarded to these offices.

This procedure does not include cash donations, pledges, or planned gifts (e.g., wills, trusts, insurance policies, and retirement benefits) unless they contain a non-cash component.

ACRONYMS AND DEFINITIONS

Non-Cash Gifts - Non-monetary contributions such as art, books, equipment, intellectual property/patents, real property, mineral rights, securities, vehicles, insurance policies, and other tangible and intangible assets.

Capital Gifts - Tangible property or equipment valued at $5,000 or more and having a useful life of two or more years.

RESPONSIBILITIES

University Responsibility Centers:

- Confirm that the solicitation of any non-cash gift is consistent with the Policy on Conflicts of Interest and Interactions between Representatives of Certain Industries and Faculty, Staff and Students of the Schools of the Health Sciences and Personnel Employed by UPMC at all Domestic Locations (known as the "Industry Relationship Policy").
- Request approval from IA/MHSF before accepting any non-cash gift.
- Maintain donated assets and ensure adherence to any mutually agreed upon restrictions.
- Inform IA/MHSF of any change to the status of donated assets, such as transfer, retirement, sale or disposal.
- Notify the Office of Risk Management (ORM) of new acquisitions of fine arts/historical treasures/collections exceeding $10,000 in appraised value.

Office of Institutional Advancement/Medical and Health Sciences Foundation, through its Development Officers:

- Evaluate the needs, costs, and implications of accepting or refusing the non-cash gift in consultation with the appropriate University Responsibility Center receiving the donation, and any other University department listed in this procedure.
- Coordinate acceptance of non-cash gifts, including assistance with the proper recording of the gift in the Advance gift processing system, and providing copies of relevant documents to University Responsibility Centers for recordkeeping and insurance purposes.
- Prepare and execute Deed of Gift or other documentation pertaining to non-cash assets.
- Complete IRS Form 8283, Noncash Charitable Contributions, when appropriate and requested.
  - The Associate Vice Chancellor for Corporate and Foundation Relations is authorized to sign IRS Form 8283 on behalf of the University.
- Coordinate completion of IRS Form 8282, Donee Information Return, when necessary.

University Art Committee and/or University Library System:

- Consult in the evaluation of gifts of fine art, historical treasures, or collection items.
