POLICY STATEMENT

This policy establishes the purchasing authority for departments and their associated responsibilities. It also describes purchases that are prohibited.

Delegation of authority to University Departments is done in writing through board resolution, policy, or from the Senior Vice Chancellor and Chief Financial Officer.

The limit on departmental purchasing authority is $10,000 per purchase for goods or services unless otherwise stated in the written delegated authority.

Approval from the Purchasing Services Department is required for purchases that exceed $10,000 unless processed through a Delegated Purchasing Unit. Delegated Purchasing Units must obtain approval for purchases in excess of their delegated limit. Further restrictions can be applied to individual purchasers by department managers.

Circumventing the established purchase authority by dividing purchase commitments into smaller transactions is prohibited.

DEFINITIONS

Delegated Purchasing Unit – Departments who have been delegated authority to make purchases in excess of the $10,000 limit as delegated by a board resolution or from the Senior Vice Chancellor and Chief Financial Officer.

Specifications

- Provide specifications that permit fair and equitable consideration from all known sources qualified to meet the University's requirements including:
 - General Description of items/services
 - Manufacturer and model number
 - Quantity
 - Physical characteristics
 - Compatibility and integration requirements
 - Required delivery date
 - Other pertinent requirements
- Consult with subject matter expert, competent specialists, or others to secure any technical assistance required for completing specifications.

Source Selection (bidding)

- Utilize University contracted suppliers as found in the Required Use of Contracted Suppliers policy 05-02-15.
- Attempt to obtain bids when no University contracted supplier is available for purchases of $10,000 or less.
- Obtain formal competitive bids for purchases greater than $10,000.
 - The Purchasing Services Department reserves final decision in the selection of sources during competitive bidding.
 - Make positive effort to provide bid opportunities to diverse, minority and women owned businesses.
- Complete a written justification when the competitive bidding requirements are not met as described in the Directed or Sole Source Purchase Justification policy 05-02-17.

Contract Form

- Utilize written or electronic forms of contract for purchases of goods and services approved by the Purchasing Services Department to mitigate the risk of financial loss to the University.
- Purchase orders must be sent to suppliers using procedures established by the Purchasing Services Department.
- Verbal orders are prohibited.
- Understand the legal consequences of the commitments made on behalf of the University.
- Have sufficient knowledge to recognize situations that require consultation with University authorities on tax, legal, liability, and insurance matters.
