I. SCOPE

This policy establishes the University's participation in the Tuition Exchange Scholarship Program, administered by the Office of Admissions and Financial Aid, and available to the dependent children of regular full-time University employees. It includes the terms of the scholarships and the criteria for determining eligibility to participate in the program.

II. POLICY

Effective with the 1990-91 academic year, the University will become an active participant in the Tuition Exchange Scholarship Program. Member institutions of the Tuition Exchange Program may send dependent children of employees, if the dependent child is awarded a Tuition Exchange Scholarship, to any other school participating in the program at a significant tuition reduction or at no tuition charge. The dependent children of regular full-time University employees with at least one year of service are eligible to apply.

The number of dependent children eligible to participate in the Tuition Exchange Scholarship program is limited by the number of scholarships available at member institutions.

The dependent child must be admitted to the host institution to be eligible for Tuition Exchange Scholarship consideration. Member institutions apply their own admissions standards and are free to choose among applicants. The placement of applicants is not guaranteed. Host institutions also have the right to terminate Tuition Exchange Scholarships if students do not meet clearly articulated standards of academic performance or personal conduct.

Only the Tuition Exchange Liaison Officer at the sponsor institution can certify eligibility to participate in the program. Only the Tuition Exchange Liaison Officer at the host institution can offer a Tuition Exchange scholarship.

University of Pittsburgh as the Sponsoring Institution

Application for scholarship through the Tuition Exchange Program is open only to freshmen dependent children of regular full-time employees with at least one year of full-time service. The deadline for submitting an application for a Tuition Exchange Scholarship is April 1 for the subsequent Fall Term.

- Where participation is limited, selection will be made based on the parent's length of full-time service defined by the date(s) of full-time hire in the Office of Human Resources or Faculty Records. Preference will be given to first time participants.

- The Tuition Exchange Committee will apply additional limitations, as necessary.

A tuition exchange scholarship generally covers eight academic terms. However, if the University fails to enroll an appropriate number of Tuition Exchange students, eligibility may be limited to less than eight terms. The University has the right to limit eligibility to less than eight terms, and eligibility must be recertified each academic year.

- Renewal of a Tuition Exchange Scholarship is contingent upon the student maintaining the required standards of academic performance and the employee maintaining eligibility. The conditions established by University policies 02-07-02 and 07-11-02, Effect of Separation on Eligibility for Scholarship Benefits, are applicable to Tuition Exchange.

The tuition exchange scholarship may cover full-tuition at the host institution, but not room, board, or special fees. However, institutions with tuitions greater than $9,900 are permitted to award less than full tuition. In such cases, the value of the 1990-91 scholarship will not be less than $9,900. (This figure may be adjusted annually.)

Within the context of the Tuition Exchange Program, the following two requirements for dependency must be met:

- The student must be a natural, adopted, or step child of the employee, and

- The student must be listed as a dependent on the employee's 1040 U.S. Individual Income Tax Return for the most recent complete tax year.

The University may require documentation to verify dependency status.

University of Pittsburgh as the Host Institution

The tuition exchange scholarship covers only tuition at the University of Pittsburgh, not room, board, or special fees such as health, activity, and network service fees.

Applicants must be admitted to the University of Pittsburgh and certified as eligible for a Tuition Exchange scholarship by the Tuition Liaison Officer at their sponsoring institution.

When the number of applicants exceed the number of available scholarships, the Office of Admissions and Financial Aid will rank candidates according to academic performance.

Tuition costs will be charged to a University account established by the Comptroller's Office.

Tuition Exchange

Tuition Exchange is managed by members of the academic community and is responsible for the promotion and recording of exchange scholarships, distribution of membership lists, and the development and implementation of program controls. The University, as a member institution of Tuition Exchange, will abide by the policies and procedures established by Tuition Exchange, which will supersede University policies and procedures in the event that inconsistencies arise.
