

Senior Leadership and Admin

	Position/title with authority	Date	Source of Authority for Delegation	Document/Contract/Designation Type	Limitations	Sub-delegation Allowed	Sub-delegation Parameters
1	Director of Athletics	1-Oct-19	Delegated by Chancellor under Bylaws Chapter I, Article 4.1	Relating to the Athletics Department, such as (1) employment of coaches; (2) competitions between the University's intercollegiate athletics teams and others; (3) sponsorship; and (4) authorization of the use of the University's athletics-related facilities for operation of sports camps, clubs, clinics or events.	Does not provide authority to purchase goods and services or to hire individuals who are not coaches at the University.	Yes, limited.	This authority can be delegated to positions who report to this position. Delegations of this authority beyond direct reports must be approved by the Chancellor. All delegations must be filed with the Secretary of the Board of Trustees and the Senior Vice Chancellor and
2	Chief Investment Officer	1-Oct-19	Delegated by Chancellor under Bylaws Chapter I, Article 4.1	Relating to the endowment and other similar investments, such as: (1) retention or dismissal of the services of investment advisors; and (2) purchase, sale, assignment, transfer, and/or delivery of stocks, bonds, rights and options to acquire the same, and other securities standing in the name of and belonging to the University.	Does not provide authority to purchase goods and services that are unrelated to the endowment or other similar investments or to hire individuals at the University.	Yes, limited.	This authority can be delegated to positions who report to this position. Delegations of this authority beyond direct reports must be approved by the Chancellor. All delegations must be filed with the Secretary of the Board of Trustees and the Senior Vice Chancellor and Chief Legal Officer.
3	Chief Information Officer and Vice Chancellor	1-Oct-19	Delegated by Chancellor under Bylaws Chapter I, Article 4.1	Relating to such matters as the management of the University's central and distributed information technology (IT) infrastructure and services, including oversight of the use of that IT, and its security and privacy.	Does not provide authority to purchase goods and services or to hire individuals at the University.	Yes, limited.	This authority can be delegated to positions who report to this position. Delegations of this authority beyond direct reports must be approved by the Chancellor. All delegations must be filed with the Secretary of the Board of Trustees and the Senior Vice Chancellor and Chief Legal Officer.
4A	Provost and Senior Vice Chancellor	1-Oct-19	Delegated by Chancellor under Bylaws Chapter I, Article 4.1	As the Provost and Senior Vice Chancellor deems necessary in the conduct of the University's business, including the authority to execute agreements resolving disputes that involve faculty at the University.		No.	No sub-delegation.
4B	Provost and Senior Vice Chancellor	1-Oct-19	Delegated by Chancellor under Bylaws Chapter I, Article 4.1	Relating to academic affairs, such as: (1) setting academic planning; (2) hiring and evaluating deans, vice provosts, regional presidents; (3) making resource allocations for the University's schools, regional campuses, and academic projects; (4) approving promotions, retentions, special hires, disciplinary actions, and new appointments to the faculty; (5) overseeing the conduct and operations of admissions and financial aid for students; (6) overseeing the conduct and operations of global affairs, student affairs, and faculty affairs; and (7) supervising the administrative processes associated with determining enrollment, course offerings, tuition, and student fees.	Does not provide authority to purchase goods and services or to hire individuals who are not deans, presidents, or faculty at the University.	Yes, limited.	This authority can be delegated to positions who report to this position. Delegations of this authority beyond direct reports must be approved by the Chancellor. All delegations must be filed with the Secretary of the Board of Trustees and the Senior Vice Chancellor and Chief Legal Officer.
5	Senior Vice Chancellor for Business Operations	1-Oct-19	Delegated by Chancellor under Bylaws Chapter I, Article 4.1	Relating to such matters as: (1) the purchase, sale, transfer, disposition, lease, or any encumbrance of real property; (2) construction, maintenance, repair, renovation of real property; (3) easements necessary for the installation or relocation of utilities on University property; and (4) business and auxiliary services, including dining, beverage, and housing.	Does not provide authority to purchase goods and services or to hire individuals at the University.	Yes, limited.	This authority can be delegated to positions who report to this position. Delegations of this authority beyond direct reports must be approved by the Chancellor. All delegations must be filed with the Secretary of the Board of Trustees and the Senior Vice Chancellor and Chief Legal Officer.

Senior Leadership and Admin

	Position/title with authority	Date	Source of Authority for Delegation	Document/Contract/Designation Type	Limitations	Sub-delegation Allowed	Sub-delegation Parameters
6A	Senior Vice Chancellor and Chief Financial Officer	1-Oct-19	Delegated by Chancellor under Bylaws Chapter I, Article 4.1	As the Senior Vice Chancellor and Chief Financial Officer deems necessary in the conduct of the University's business.		No.	No sub-delegation.
6B	Senior Vice Chancellor and Chief Financial Officer	1-Oct-19	Delegated by Chancellor under Bylaws Chapter I, Article 4.1	Relating to such matters as: (1) the purchase of any goods or services; (2) the opening or closing of a depository, trust, custody, or investment accounts; (3) the issuance of drafts, checks, currency exchange transactions, payment orders for money drawn on and/or transferred to or from the University; (4) the purchase, sale, assignment, transfer, pledge, and/or delivery of stocks, bonds, debentures, warrants, and any other investment interests and/or options to acquire or sell the same standing in the name of and belonging to the University; (5) the borrowing of money, the assignment or pledging of assets of the University, the issuance of letters of credit, surety bonds and/or guarantees in the name of or for the benefit of the University; (6) the purchase, sale, transfer, or disposition of capital equipment and assets (other than securities), routine sales, or trade-in of surplus or used equipment, material, and supplies; (7) leases of equipment and other personal property; (8) the filing of taxes and audit of the University's financials; and (9) the purchase of insurance and retention of insurance brokers.	Does not provide authority to hire individuals at the University.	Yes, limited.	Authority in Paragraph B(1) may be further delegated for purchases not exceeding $5 million in total cost. All other authorities can be delegated to positions who report to this position or beyond direct reports with approval by the Chancellor. All delegations must be filed with the Secretary of the Board of Trustees and the Senior Vice Chancellor and Chief Legal Officer.
7A	Senior Vice Chancellor and Chief Legal Officer	1-Oct-19	Delegated by Chancellor under Bylaws Chapter I, Article 4.1	As the Senior Vice Chancellor and Chief Legal Officer deems necessary in the conduct of the University's business.		No.	No sub-delegation.
7B	Senior Vice Chancellor and Chief Legal Officer	1-Oct-19	Delegated by Chancellor under Bylaws Chapter I, Article 4.1	Relating to such matters as: (1) those necessary to resolve disputes involving a University matter; (2) certifications of compliance required by governmental authority; and (3) the retention of legal services for the University.	Does not provide authority to purchase goods and services or to hire individuals at the University.	Yes, limited.	This authority can be delegated to positions who report to this position, unless otherwise prohibited or restricted by the Chancellor, and copies must be submitted to the Secretary of the Board of Trustees and the Senior Vice Chancellor and Chief Legal Officer. Delegations of this authority beyond direct reports must be approved by the Chancellor, and copies must be submitted to the Secretary of the Board of Trustees
8	Senior Vice Chancellor for Engagement and Secretary of the Board of Trustees	1-Oct-19	Delegated by Chancellor under Bylaws Chapter I, Article 4.1	Relating to such matters as: (1) the University's internal and external relations, such as business engagements and interaction with governmental entities; and (2) performing the functions necessary to complete obligations incumbent upon the Secretary of the Board of Trustees.	Does not provide authority to purchase goods and services or to hire individuals at the University.	Yes, limited.	This authority can be delegated to positions who report to this position. Delegations of this authority beyond direct reports must be approved by the Chancellor. All delegations must be filed with the Secretary of the Board of Trustees and the Senior Vice Chancellor and
9	Senior Vice Chancellor for the Health Sciences	1-Oct-19	Delegated by Chancellor under Bylaws Chapter I, Article 4.1	Relating to the clinical activities of Health Sciences schools and matters pertaining to the management and oversight of the Health Sciences schools (not specifically delegated to the Provost and Senior Vice Chancellor).	Does not provide authority to purchase goods and services or to hire individuals at the University.	Yes, limited.	This authority can be delegated to positions who report to this position. Delegations of this authority beyond direct reports must be approved by the Chancellor. All delegations must be filed with the Secretary of the Board of Trustees and the Senior Vice Chancellor and

	Position/title with authority	Date	Source of Authority for Delegation	Document/Contract/Designation Type	Limitations	Sub-delegation Allowed	Sub-delegation Parameters
10	Senior Vice Chancellor for Philanthropic and Alumni Engagement	1-Oct-19	Delegated by Chancellor under Bylaws Chapter I, Article 4.1	Relating to fundraising and alumni relations programs.	Does not provide authority to purchase goods and services or to hire individuals at the University.	Yes, limited.	This authority can be delegated to positions who report to this position. Delegations of this authority beyond direct reports must be approved by the Chancellor. All delegations must be filed with the Secretary of the Board of Trustees and the Senior Vice Chancellor and
11	Senior Vice Chancellor for Research	1-Oct-19	Delegated by Chancellor under Bylaws Chapter I, Article 4.1	Relating to such matters as: (1) sponsored research and other sponsored programs; (2) administrative contracts; (3) institutional letters of support; (4) institutional commitments related to research; (5) obtaining research material that requires compliance with specific protocols or certification; and (6) the licenses, sale, transfer, disposition, or other arrangements involving the University's intellectual property.	Does not provide authority to purchase goods and services or to hire individuals at the University.	Yes, limited.	This authority can be delegated to positions who report to this position. Delegations of this authority beyond direct reports must be approved by the Chancellor. All delegations must be filed with the Secretary of the Board of Trustees and the Senior Vice Chancellor and Chief Legal Officer.
12	Treasurer	1-Oct-19	Delegated by Chancellor under Bylaws Chapter I, Article 4.1	Necessary to perform the duties of the position as provided in Chapter 1, Article 3.7 of the University's Bylaws.	Does not provide authority to purchase goods and services or to hire individuals at the University.	Yes, limited.	This authority can be delegated to positions who report to this position. Delegations of this authority beyond direct reports must be approved by the Chancellor. All delegations must be filed with the Secretary of the Board of Trustees and the Senior Vice Chancellor and
13A	Vice Chancellor for Human Resources	1-Oct-19	Delegated by Chancellor under Bylaws Chapter I, Article 4.1	Necessary to resolve disputes involving an employment matter at the University.		No.	No sub-delegation.
13B	Vice Chancellor for Human Resources	1-Oct-19	Delegated by Chancellor under Bylaws Chapter I, Article 4.1	Relating to such matters as: (1) the hiring of individuals who are not deans, presidents, faculty, or coaches at the University; and (2) all matters pertaining to the availability and issuance of education, retirement, and health and wellness benefits by the University to its faculty and staff.	Does not provide authority to purchase goods and services.	Yes, limited.	This authority can be delegated to positions who report to this position. Delegations of this authority beyond direct reports must be approved by the Chancellor. All delegations must be filed with the Secretary of the Board of Trustees and the Senior Vice Chancellor and